Message from the Venerable Master

Greetings Brethren!

This month's article comes to you in a roundabout way from our Orator, Brother Gerald Giebink 32°. For those of you who were not able to attend the Lodge of Perfection meeting on March 6th, Bro. Gerald presented a fascinating enlightenment that was illuminating information to nearly all of us in attendance. The topic of his presentation was the Maundy Thursday observance.

When Bro. Gerald texted to inform me that he wanted to make this talk, I initially thought the message came through my phone garbled. Certainly, I speculated, he meant Monday – Thursday. However, I pondered, aren't we supposed to be Freemasons every day of the week? All I had to do is be patient, however, which every good Mason should endeavor to do (especially me, according to Milissa), and all would be made clear by Bro. Gerald's oration.

Bro. Gerald first learned of Maundy Thursday while performing his duties as the Billings Valley's VMAP (Valley Membership Achievement Project) coordinator. VMAP is a project that's mission is to help each Valley ensure every Scottish Rite Brother is provided with the best possible member experience and value for his membership. The tool used to achieve this goal is the VMAP workbook, which Bro. Gerald is responsible for completing and submitting to the Supreme Council on behalf of the Billings Valley each year.

In the workbook, Bro. Gerald noticed a curious category that could be completed to achieve its intended success. This category was the observance of Maundy Thursday. Being not certain what that meant, this motivated Bro. Gerald to investigate precisely what this celebration entailed.

According to Bro. Gerald's research, many Christians observe Maundy Thursday, or Holy Thursday, on the Thursday before Good Friday and Easter. This day always comes between March 19th and April 22nd. Furthermore, this day commemorates Jesus' last supper with his disciples.

REUNION!

Greetings! Here is the schedule for the Donald Herndon 33°, Valley of Billings, 193rd Reunion. We have seven candidates as of the printing of the Billboard. If you know of a Master Mason in your Blue Lodge that is interested, please let the Secretary know. I hope you take time to join us in reuniting with your fellow Brethren on April 19th and 20th while we make new Scottish Rite Masons. I look forward to seeing you then.

THE RITE CORNER

“In Memoriam of Brother Chris”

David L. Nielsen, S.G.I.G. in Montana

On February 18, 2024, Masonry, Scottish Rite and I lost a wonderful friend, Brother Christopher Jeffrey Nathanael Lustgraaf, who died unexpectedly at the age of 33. I met Brother Chris for the first time at the joint Reunion of Helena and Great Falls Valleys held in Great Falls on May 20, 2023. I did the communication of the degrees and led discussion on the lessons of the degrees (i.e. I asked questions to the candidates.) When studying the degrees of Scottish Rite Freemasonry, the lessons of the degrees are really a study of human behavior in response to various influences. Brother Chris added valuable insight and a disciplined comprehension of human behavior portrayed in the degree being discussed. His explanation of psychological causes for typical human responses in different social interaction brought a new light in analyzing the degree lessons. When he commented on the lesson, it was humbly presented. We all appreciated the depth of his intellectual contributions to the learning. Later in the Reunion Brother Chris told me he had studied psychology in college. Only recently did I learn that he had a Doctorate in Social and Experimental Psychology.

The day after the Reunion in Great Falls, I was in coffee hour after the church service, and there was Brother Chris. Then I learned that not only was he a brother Mason, he was also working as the Education & Outreach Coordinator for the church. With these two connections, our fraternal bond strengthened. I had admiration for his intellect, humor, humility, and sincerity. I treasured learning from him and sharing our common beliefs. Later when I was in the church office, we continued talking about our mutual interests.

In late July 2023, Brother Chris told me had accepted a position at MSU-Northern, in Havre, Montana and would be leaving his hometown of Helena. Since I was a native of Bozeman, I understood the concern of moving from a city within the mountains to the flatter regions of Montana. In my career I had moved from Bozeman to Valley County. At least in Havre, one can see the Bears Paw Mountains to the south. We discussed the esthetic difference between living in the mountains and living in the prairie, and we agreed that mountain people can enjoy the prairie environment. We agreed to keep in touch and meet again at future Scottish Rite functions.

My regret when he left Helena was that it would be difficult to meet up again, and because I appreciated his insight and strength of character, I wanted to learn more about him and his philosophy of life.

The Clinic is providing sponsorships for 63 children. There are a few applications for sponsorships as well. The average expenditures per month is over $4,000.

At the annual meeting in February, three existing board members were re-elected for a three-year term, Mary Beth Aasterud, Ronny Aasterud, and Sean McDuffee. A new member was elected, David Jobrack, which brings the total members to 14.

The Clinic will have a new website soon. It has been many years since the original one was started and needed many updates. The logo on the website will be Rite Care.

New contracts have been signed by all the clinics. Thanks to Don Herndon for updating the contracts and contacting all the clinics.

The Clinic received from the Anderson Trust $3,174. This trust has given similar amounts to the Clinic for many years.

Please consider the 365 Club. You can give a few cents a day, a dollar a day, or more. It all helps and gives funding for the sponsorships.

Respectfully submitted,
Jered Scherer, Chairman

During that meal in the upper room, Jesus washed his disciples' feet, referred to as The Maundy. He also gave them a new commandment, and it is recounted in John 13:34 as thus: "Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another." In fact, the word "Maundy" comes from the Latin word "mandatum," which means, "commandment."

Jesus took the role of the servant of the house when he humbly washed each of his disciples' feet. The act of washing feet was a symbolic reminder of Jesus' authority to forgive sin. It was an act of service to his disciples and something a servant would have done.

According to the introduction of the Chapter of Rose Croix's Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal, the wisdom offered by Jesus in John 13:34 are simple words. Yet, they express the most sublime truth that all men are brothers. In other words, we share one origin and one common obligation. Jesus taught this proclamation as the one absolute rule that can measure life.

In commemoration of this truth and of its relevance to the Scottish Rite, Rose Croix Chapters traditionally observed Maundy Thursday on the middle day of Holy Week. The Christian world traditionally fixed this date by using the day of Easter Sunday, which is the first Sunday after the full moon. This happens on or after March 21st, the vernal equinox. Freemasons have remembered this special day and have gathered throughout the world to reaffirm their faith in the universal fraternity of mankind.

Masonically, Maundy Thursday is envisioned as a ceremony to commemorate the "Extinguishing of the Symbolic Light," more specifically the crucifixion of Jesus Christ as is told in the gospel. On the immediate Sunday, there was a follow-up observance aptly called the "Relighting of the Symbolic Light," which marked the resurrection. The key point of this observance was to remember those brethren who have passed on in the preceding year. Where once these events were mandatory for Knights Rose Croix, in most locations they now serve as remembrance events open to everyone.

The first written record of Maundy Thursday was a ritual of the Eighteenth Degree which Charles de Ladebat wrote and published in 1856 in New Orleans. The Code of Statutes, which was adopted in 1866, lists Maundy Thursday as a feast day. Furthermore, as of 1878, the Statutes indicated its observance as obligatory.

In deference to the religious nature of the Maundy Thursday ceremonies, however, this all changed in 1994. It was deemed appropriate at that time that a Scottish Rite nonobligatory "Celebration of Remembrance and Renewal" should replace the traditional Maundy Thursday observance. This was established to be held near the vernal equinox on March 21st.

While seemingly a religious, and most specifically a Christian observance, it's been written that the ceremony seeks to, "commemorate the death of our most wise and perfect Master, not as inspired or divine, but as at least the greatest of humanity." In one description of the event, Arturo De Hoyos, Grand Archivist and Grand Historian of the Supreme Council, 33° Southern Jurisdiction, says, "The Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal, including the Mystic Banquet, is not a religious observance. It is neither the Feast of Passover nor a Sacrament of Holy Communion, although it commemorates the spirit of both days. Annually, the observance is held near the vernal equinox."

Magic City
Chapter

Greetings family and friends, how can we be in April already? This year is flying by way too fast. It is strange how the days drag, but the year doesn't. Magic City Chapter is gearing up to attend Montana DeMolay's Sweet Retreat. This year we are changing things up. We are holding this event at an adventure camp located outside of Bozeman Montana. We will still accomplish our mission of the event, but there will be a lot less structure and more bonding and growing as people and members this year. We are going to have initiation, workshops, dancing, hitting a hot springs pool and campfires. Our goal is to build the bonds between the members that will last a lifetime. I am very excited about this event.

I have been on a journey of self-discovery and personal growth over the past several months, and one of the most rewarding endeavors is finding your passion. I've had the privilege of witnessing the transformative power of exploring interests and passions in myself and in the lives of those around me. Today, I invite you to embark on a journey of self-exploration and inspiration as we delve into the topic of finding your passion.

Every individual is unique, with a diverse range of interests, talents, and curiosities waiting to be explored. Encouraging our young men to explore a variety of interests opens the door to new experiences and opportunities for growth. Whether it's music, art, sports, technology, or community service, there's a vast world of possibilities waiting to be discovered.

When we engage in activities that align with our passions, we unlock a reservoir of inspiration and motivation in both the short and long term. Passion ignites a fire within us, driving us to pursue our goals with unwavering determination and enthusiasm. It fuels our creativity, sparks innovation, and propels us towards success.

Discovering and pursuing our passions yields numerous benefits beyond personal fulfillment. It fosters a sense of purpose and direction, guiding our choices and actions towards meaningful endeavors. Passion cultivates resilience, empowering us to overcome obstacles and persevere in the face of challenges. Moreover, it enhances overall well-being, contributing to greater happiness, satisfaction, and fulfillment in life.

As adults and supporters, it's our responsibility to create an environment that nurtures and encourages the exploration of passions. We must provide opportunities for our youth to discover their interests, experiment with new activities, and pursue their dreams with confidence. By fostering a culture of curiosity, creativity, and self-discovery, we empower our youth to unlock their full potential and become the leaders of tomorrow.

In conclusion, finding your passion is a transformative journey that holds the key to unlocking our true potential. As family members of Magic City Chapter and of the Scottish Rite, let us inspire and empower our youth to explore their interests, pursue their passions, and embark on a journey of self-discovery.

Magic City Chapter extends our arms to all who want to join us in this journey. Help us create an environment where inspiration is a way of life, where every day is an opportunity. If you are or have someone in mind, youth, or adult, who would benefit from our organization, please reach out to me at dan.massey@mtdemolay.org or 402-681-7763.

While seemingly a religious, and most specifically a Christian observance, it's been written that the ceremony seeks to, "commemorate the death of our most wise and perfect Master, not as inspired or divine, but as at least the greatest of humanity." In one description of the event, Arturo De Hoyos, Grand Archivist and Grand Historian of the Supreme Council, 33° Southern Jurisdiction, says, "The Ceremony of Remembrance and Renewal, including the Mystic Banquet, is not a religious observance. It is neither the Feast of Passover nor a Sacrament of Holy Communion, although it commemorates the spirit of both days. Annually, the observance is held near the vernal equinox."

Of the ceremony itself, it states, "Let us at the Symbolic Relighting of the Lights, dedicate ourselves to duty, renew our vows, so often repeated in our Rite, and lead the Life of Love, one to another, that our light will shine among men in the world, that we may be known truly as men and as Masons who mean eternal truths learned in our Rituals and who, by our personal acts and conduct, portray those meanings to their ultimate fulfillment."

In closing, if you missed the March Lodge of Perfection meeting, at least now you did not miss this intriguing enlightenment presented by Bro. Gerald. For all the reasons offered in this topic, I hope you can be in attendance for the Billings Valley's Remembrance and Renewal ceremony on April 3rd. As a reminder, the event is open to the public, so friends and family are allowed to attend. Not only is it important for us together to mourn the passing of our departed brethren who have had their lights extinguished in the prior year, it is equally important for us to reignite the light of hope and illuminate our way, through enlightenment, to a brighter future.

With Masonic Regards!
Bro. John Hugdahl, 32°
Venerable Master
Billings Valley Scottish Rite

I remembered that while he worked for the church, he would write short articles telling of upcoming church events, and in the articles, he would segue from gems of wisdom and reflections on life and spirituality to the announcement of happenings. To understand who Brother Chris was, here are quotes from his original profound thoughts that were artfully made a part of the announcements, and which reflect his sound character and profound faith:

ON CHANGE: "Change is a difficult path to navigate, but through change we are afforded the opportunity to grow. We can see this in the world around us. Spring has come, grass and leaves are growing, flowers bloom, and the cold white winter of the north has given way to the beauty of Spring. This is a season of renewal and rebirth, both for the land and the church."

ON THE FUTURE AFTER PANDEMIC: "Given the 'return to normal' that is taking place across the country, it makes sense now more than ever to focus on the future rather than to dwell on the past. If one foot is planted firmly in the past, it is all the more difficult to move forward. I for one hope to see this community grow and continue to thrive."

ON PEACE: "Outside surrounded by the beauty of nature, and getting the chance to meet with old friends and new people from both congregations, I felt spiritually full (and physically full thanks to Rockstarr BBQ). That is what fellowship and camaraderie can do for us. It brings together people from disparate backgrounds who may not have had the chance to meet each other under different circumstances."

ON COMMUNITY: "We are all part of a community of God. Dealing with difficulties, no matter how seemingly large or insignificant, is made much easier simply by knowing you have the support of others. At the end of the day, there is no shame in asking for help, whether it be from another person or from God. God never gives us more than we can handle, and challenge is a great way for us to grow."

ON BELIEF AND FINDING GOD: "Belief can mean different things to each of us, and look very different from person to person. It can refer to our spiritual or religious beliefs, belief in someone or something, or simply belief in ourselves. This belief is powerful, and can be used to drive our actions. When our actions are in line with our belief in God, we can accomplish great things, regardless of whether we understand God's plan or not. We have all heard the phrase that 'seeing is believing,' but when it comes to our spirituality, I would argue that believing is seeing. When we believe, God manifests Himself not only in the world around us, but also in the people around us."

ON ACCEPTING CHALLENGES: "In life, we face many challenges. In fact, it often feels like life is full of them. Dealing with challenges can feel overwhelming, and how we deal with them depends on so many different factors. Is it a novel challenge, or something we're used to? Is it a small challenge that is easily handled, or something that completely overwhelms us? What coping mechanisms do we employ? These kinds of things nearly always depend on the person, situation, and so much more."

I hope these reflections from Brother Chris show who he was as a man and Mason, and what he held sacred in life. His messages give us the inspiration for purity of life, for higher thoughts, and greater achievements. I will miss him, but thanks be to God for him sharing his deep thoughts and guidance for us to navigate the currents of life.

Losing a friend who is young teaches us to devote time to share and learn from that friend because we know not when we might not have that opportunity.

May his life be a beacon of light for peace to his family, friends, and brothers. Farewell, dear Brother, farewell.

From our Librarian – Illustrious Tom Horning –

In 1986 four years before I joined the Masonic Lodge Brother Harold Davidson, who was then a professor of Library Sciences at Eastern Montana College began putting together the Billings Scottish Rite Masonic Library. It occupied one small repurposed former church classroom in the basement of the Scottish Rite building. Brother Davidson spent many of his own dollars to collect various Masonic printed materials: books, past proceedings of numerous appended bodies, out of print books, research lodge memberships, past publications of numerous research lodges, and various historic photographs, documents, and memorabilia. Over the years that single room absorbed three others, as the library grew. Brother Harold found the Dewey Decimal System inadequate to handle all the Masonic material, so he created his own system of cataloging and shelving books. I call it the Davidson Decimal System. The Billings Valley did at some point, begin awarding the library an annual grant of $1000 annually for the furtherance of the library. The annual grant together with donations and sales of Masonic jewelry continues to sufficiently fund the libraries operations.

When, in 2014 Brother Harold realized that his time was short, he began seeking a replacement for himself as librarian. I was asked to meet with him, and to my surprise he told me that he would like me to take over. I had no background in Library Science, but Brother Harold told me that since I was a science teacher that I had undoubtedly spent some time in a library. I reluctantly agreed and subsequently spent many Thursday mornings after coffee learning as much as I could absorb, and Harold could communicate about Library Science. I am still woefully ignorant of the intricate workings of a fully functioning library due to my own inadequacies, not due to Harold's monumental efforts to educate me.

Now for highlights of the library's holdings –

Library research memberships include:

1. The Philalethes Society (Harold was their librarian for years)
2. Quator Coronati-the Premier Lodge of Masonic Research in England (1884 to the present)
3. Texas Lodge of Research
4. Iowa Lodge of Research
5. The Scottish Rite Research Society
6. Missouri Lodge of Research
7. The Illinois Lodge of Research
8. Southern California Research Lodge F&AM
9. Allied Masonic Degrees – York Rite

We monthly or annually receive books and various publications from each of the above bodies.
